AFROTC DET. 590-A NEWSLETTER
VOL. 1:2
November 17, 1981

THE COLONEL WAS IN TOWN

On 27 October 1981 Col. Lawrence Hasbrouck from McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey visited the Air Force ROTC detachment at UMCC. He spoke to the entire Cadet Corps on various aspects of Air Force ROTC.

Colonel Lawrence Hasbrouck is Commander of the Northeast Area of Air Force ROTC. The area encompasses 14 states on the Atlantic coast from Maine to North Carolina. He has the responsibility for 31 senior AFROTC units at colleges and universities and 88 junior AFROTC units at high schools within the area.

Prior to assuming command, Colonel Hasbrouck was Professor of Aerospace Studies and Commander of Lehigh University's Air Force ROTC Detachment. He held this position for five years and is still on the Lehigh faculty as an adjunct professor.

Colonel Hasbrouck is a specialist in the areas of intercontinental ballistic missiles, military command and control procedures, and the Air Force ROTC program. He is the recipient of the Air Force Combat Readiness Medal with one oak leaf cluster, the National Defense Medal with one oak leaf cluster, the Air Force commendation Medal with two oak leaf clusters, the Meritorious Service Medal, and the Legion of Merit.

During his Air Force career, he has served as Director of Operations, 351st Strategic Missile Wing, Commander of the 510th Strategic Missile Squadron, and as Chief of the Strategic Air Command's Airborne Launch Control System (ALCS). He also served as a wing senior instructor for both the ALCS and Minuteman Missiles.

As chief of the ALCS from 1968 to 1972 at Offutt Air Force Base, Nebraska, he was directly involved in the launch of some 35 Minuteman missiles from the western test range at Vandenberg Air Force Base, California, by the airborne method. When commander of the AFROTC unit at Lehigh, the enrollment increased from 100 to 180 cadets and AFROTC scholarship students from 35 in 1975 to 125 in 1980. Colonel Hasbrouck's detachment at Lehigh received

Colonel Hasbrouck assumed command of the Northeast Area in August 1980. The headquarters is located at McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey.

Something to humor you

The only exercise some women get is running up bills.

The only exercise some men get is wrestling with their conscience.

There's only one thing harder than a diamond, and that's making the payments on it.

The only thing better than marrying a millionaire is divorcing one.

There's only one thing worse than a person who gossips, and that's a person who doesn't know any.

Every family needs at least two cars; ask the man who owns one.

Two can live as cheaply as one-on parents

Two heads are better than one, especially in a barber shop.

Two heads are better than one, unless you have a hangover.

It takes two to make a bargain, but only one gets it.

Children leave their parents one by one, usually to return two by two.

During inflation the one-dollar lunch you have been paying two dollars for goes up to three dollars.

Fish can be bought if they can't be caught.

Many a snob acts as if it's her duty to be snooty.

When grandmama had suitors, they wooed with bashful heart,

And when they sat together, they sat this far apart.

Granddaughter now has boyfriends who greet her with a kiss,

And when they sit together, they sit realcloselikethis.
